

DAILY THOUGHTS

- | | | |
|------------------|----|--|
| Tuesday, January | 1. | Ps. cxix. 1. Undeified. (Sincere, N. V.) The habit of sincere obedience will win the Lord's approval. |
| Wednesday, | " | 2. " cxix. 2. The only way to successfully seek the Lord, is with the whole heart. |
| Thursday, | " | 3. " cxix. 3. What one does not, is almost as important as what he does. |
| Friday, | " | 4. " cxix. 4. Dilligently, means, all the while; and this suggests its importance. |
| Saturday, | " | 5. " cxix. 5. It is well to feel ones failures and need of help. |
| Sunday, | " | 6. " cxix. 6. One thing to be ashamed of, is not to think highly of God's law. |
| Monday, | " | 7. " cxix. 7. He that has come to know the Lord's righteous judgments, could but praise him. |
| Tuesday, | " | 8. " cxix. 8. A good resolution, and a prayer, which from the lips of his own, God is sure to answer. |
| Wednesday, | " | 9. " cxix. 9. An interesting question, and a wise answer. |
| Thursday, | " | 10. " cxix. 10. A good motto — whole-hearted service. |
| Friday, | " | 11. " cxix. 11. An excellent motive, but to be discovered. |
| Saturday, | " | 12. " cxix. 12. A wise prayer, which by study, one should try to help answer. He must eat if he would be fed. |
| Sunday, | " | 13. " cxix. 13. One must be inspired to declare them all; yet we may all be witnesses of what we do know. |
| Monday, | " | 14. " cxix. 14. To one who loves the Lord obedience is a pleasure, and the Lord's approbation, better than gold. |
| Tuesday, | " | 15. " cxix. 15. Think on his precepts in order to keep them. |
| Wednesday, | " | 16. " cxix. 16. We are sure to think of the things we love. |
| Thursday, | " | 17. " cxix. 17. A good motive; but God's goodness does not always lead to repentance and obedience. |
| Friday, | " | 18. " cxix. 18. Not for idle curiosity, but for the sake of obedience. A good daily prayer. |
| Saturday, | " | 19. " cxix. 19. God would not have his children feel so much at home here, that they will not seek a better country. |
| Sunday, | " | 20. " cxix. 20. Such intense longing is sure to be rewarded. The broken and contrite heart he will not despise. |
| Monday, | " | 21. " cxix. 21. Yet he rebukes, that he may win, as would a father. |
| Tuesday, | " | 22. " cxix. 22. As a child he pleads for his-Father's protection from tongues sharper than swords, and whose wounds are worse. He knows where to take such troubles. |
| Wednesday, | " | 23. " cxix. 23. Enemies will soon tire talking about us, if we answer not back, but seek comfort in prayer. |
| Thursday, | " | 24. " cxix. 24. Pleasant and profitable. Must be a delight, in order to be most profitable. |
| Friday, | " | 25. " cxix. 25. The sin within our hearts would drag us down, but when God gives us new life, we rise towards him. |
| Saturday, | " | 26. " cxix. 26. He has made his confession, is sorry for his sin, and would now be led in the right path. |
| Sunday, | " | 27. " cxix. 27. He would know, not, for the pleasure of knowledge, but that he might be helpful to others. |
| Monday, | " | 28. " cxix. 28. When the heart is melted in the fire of affliction, or with the heat of great sorrow; plead the promises. |
| Tuesday, | " | 29. " cxix. 29. Let us not offer to God false service, and neither speak, pray nor sing a lie. |
| Wednesday, | " | 30. " cxix. 30. Which have you chosen, the way of truth, or of falsehood? Each must choose for himself. |
| Thursday, | " | 31. " cxix. 31. First choose the right, then stick to it fearlessly. |
